ART GROUP TRIPS FOR HOSTS

Take your art group abroad. We plan the trip. Your seat can be free.

You teach or lead artists, and your people trust you. Dream Travel builds the whole trip around their love of art. Rene, who runs Dream Travel, talks it through with you himself before anything is planned.

No fee to host. Answer a few quick questions, then pick a time on his calendar. No trip details needed yet.

WHAT HOSTING CAN LOOK LIKE

Pick the one that fits your group

A covered seat.
Your host seat can be covered by the bookings of the guests you bring.

A host share.
Hosts may receive a set share on each guest who books. The terms are in your host agreement.

Give it back.
Your share can go to a school, a club or a fund your people already care about.

You see the exact terms in writing before you invite a single person. Host seats and shares are paid through the traveler price. What a host receives depends on how many guests book, and nothing is guaranteed. Hosting means bringing your own group. It is not a sales role.

HOW IT WORKS

You bring the people. We carry the rest.

01 Talk. Rene listens first: who is coming, what your artists loved on past trips, what they never want to repeat.

02 Shape. He drafts a custom trip around your pace and theme. We coordinate hotels, transport, local guides and suppliers.

03 Host. A local partner we know receives your group and runs the days. Our team and the local partner stay reachable from before the first flight to the last dinner.

STRAIGHT ANSWERS

What hosts ask first

"I do not have time."
You bring the group. We handle the planning and the supplier calls.

"What if not enough people sign up?"
Eight travelers is enough to run a trip, and a first trip can stay small. Tell Rene the number you honestly expect and the trip is shaped around it.

"What does it cost me?"
No fee to host. Host seats and shares are paid through the traveler price, and your host agreement shows the numbers first. Travelers book their own flights.

SAMPLE TRIPS Italy: Rome, Siena, Florence 9 DAYS · France: Provence 11 DAYS · Portugal 10 DAYS · Spain: Andalusia 8 DAYS · Ireland 10 DAYS.
These are examples, not a catalog. Yours is built from scratch, for 8 or more travelers, with more art and culture trips to see.

Your group has a trip in it. Start with a conversation.

A few quick questions, then pick a time on Rene's calendar.
